PRAYER FOR RELIEF

In response to the prayer for relief, OpenAI denies that Plaintiff is entitled to the requested relief, or to any relief whatsoever, including because Plaintiff has suffered no injury sufficient to confer standing to bring any claim for relief.

DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

With respect to the jury demand contained in the First Amended Complaint, OpenAI states that no response is required. To the extent a response is deemed required, OpenAI denies that Plaintiff's claims are properly triable to a jury.

AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSES

In further answer to the allegations made by Plaintiff in the Complaint, OpenAI asserts the following affirmative defenses. OpenAI does not concede that it has the burden of proof on the defenses listed below.

FIRST AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiff's claims are barred, in whole or in part, because Plaintiff does not own or hold exclusive rights under 17 U.S.C. § 106 or any copyright law over each work that was allegedly infringed by OpenAI.

SECOND AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiff's claims are barred, in whole or in part, because the copyright registrations purporting to cover some or all of the works in dispute are invalid and do not satisfy the requirements of 17 U.S.C. § 411–412.

THIRD AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

To the extent there is copying of copyrightable expression, that copying constitutes fair use.

FOURTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiff's claims are barred, in whole or in part, by the doctrines of copyright misuse and unclean hands.

FIFTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiff's claims are barred, in whole or in part, because Plaintiff has suffered no provable injury as a result of the challenged conduct, which inter alia precludes relief under 17 U.S.C. § 1203(a).

SIXTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiff's claims fail in whole or in part because the complained-of use was validly licensed by express or implied license.

SEVENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiff's claims are barred in whole or in part by the doctrines of waiver, abandonment, and/or forfeiture.

EIGHTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiff's claims are barred, in whole or in part, by the doctrine of laches.

NINTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiff's claims are barred, in whole or in part, by the doctrine of estoppel.

TENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiff's claims fail in whole or in part because OpenAI's conduct was innocent, not willful.

ELEVENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiff's remedies are barred at least in part by the applicable statutes of limitations.

TWELFTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiff is barred from recovery of damages because of and to the extent of its failure to mitigate its alleged damages (to which, in any event, Plaintiff is not entitled).

THIRTEENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiff's claims are barred, in whole or in part, to the extent they claim rights to elements of works or to works which are not protectable under copyright law, or that are in the public domain, lack the requisite originality, are unregistered, or are works to which copyright protection has been abandoned.

FOURTEENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiff's claims of copyright infringement are barred or limited by the doctrine of merger.

FIFTEENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiff's claims of copyright infringement are barred or limited by the idea/expression dichotomy.

SIXTEENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiff's claims of copyright infringement are barred or limited because the material in which Plaintiff claims copyright constitutes "scènes à faire."

SEVENTEENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

To the extent there is copying of copyrightable expression, that copying is de minimis.

EIGHTEENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiff's claims of copyright infringement are barred or limited because the material in which Plaintiff claims copyright constitutes unprotectible facts.

NINETEENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiff's claims fail, in whole or in part, because the allegedly violative conduct was innocent pursuant to 17 U.S.C. § 1203(c)(5)(A).

TWENTIETH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiff's claims fail, in whole or in part, for failure to state a claim.

TWENTY-FIRST AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiff's claims are barred, in whole or in part, because the acts alleged in the First Amended Complaint are not an infringement of copyright, including because the alleged acts are fair use and/or de minimis, and/or because copyright protection is barred by the doctrine of merger, the doctrine of scène à faire, or the idea/expression dichotomy.

TWENTY-SECOND AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiff's claims are barred, in whole or in part, because OpenAI reasonably believed that the acts alleged in the First Amended Complaint were not an infringement of copyright, including because the alleged acts are fair use and/or de minimis, and/or because copyright protection is barred by the doctrine of merger, the doctrine of scènes à faire, and/or the idea/expression dichotomy.

TWENTY-THIRD AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiff's claims are barred, in whole or in part, because OpenAI did not know or have reasonable grounds to know that the acts alleged in the First Amended Complaint were an infringement of copyright, including because the alleged acts are fair use and/or de minimis, and/or because copyright protection is barred by the doctrine of merger, the doctrine of scènes à faire, and/or the idea/expression dichotomy.

TWENTY-FOURTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiff's claims are barred, in whole or in part, because Plaintiff are not entitled to injunctive relief (temporarily, preliminarily, or permanently), including because any injury to it is not immediate or irreparable, Plaintiff would have an adequate remedy at law, the balance of hardships favors no injunction, and the public interest is best served by no injunction.

TWENTY-FIFTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiff's claims are barred, in whole or in part, because any reproduction, distribution, or display of any allegedly infringing outputs, or copies allegedly made in the generative search process, were caused by the acts or omissions of other persons or entities for whose conduct OpenAI is not legally responsible.

TWENTY-SIXTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiff's claims are barred, in whole or in part, because they are barred by the safe harbor provisions of the Digital Millennium Copyright Act, 17 U.S.C. § 512 (a)-(d).

TWENTY-SEVENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiff's claims are barred, in whole or in part, because all of the models accused of infringement, and all of OpenAI's products and services offered in connection with those accused models, are capable of substantial non-infringing uses.

TWENTY-EIGHTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiff's claim for damages is barred by the Eighth and Fourteenth Amendments to the U.S. Constitution.

TWENTY-NINTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

OpenAI reserves all affirmative defenses under Rule 8(c) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, and any other defenses at law or in equity, that may now exist or in the future become available based on discovery and further factual investigation.
